

Park Visalia

3939 West Walnut Avenue, Visalia, CA 93277
(559) 358-2289 • @ParkVisaliaSeniorLiving

Resident Birthdays

- Gerldine C. - 7th
- John S. - 11th
- Gail H. - 14th
- Dan G. - 19th
- John R. - 20th
- Angie M. - 27th

Congratulations to our December Employee of the Month
Brendon E.

A note from our...
Executive Director

Welcome Home!

As we head into the last month of 2025, I find myself reflecting on all of the wonderful things this year has brought to Park Visalia and looking forward to what the new year will bring. Below is a sneak peek of what's happening in December:

- 12/3 & 12/17 Grief Support Group
- 12/15-12/21 Spirit Week Dress Up Days
- 12/24 Christmas Eve Pajama Party and Veteran's Poker Night
- 12/25 Christmas Morning Presents Around the Tree
- 12/26 December Birthday Party
- 12/31 New Year's Eve Toast & Celebration

We will be visiting places such as the Hanford Winter Wonderland, Hannegan's Tree Farm, Visalia Mall, Black Bear Diner, Target, Costco, and Smash Town Burgers.

There will also be lots of live performances to serenade us and touch our hearts through music.

We are grateful for each resident who calls Park Visalia their home and their amazing families. May your holidays be merry and bright!

Warm regards,
Amanda Kelsey
Executive Director

Park Visalia

3939 West Walnut Avenue, Visalia, CA 93277
(559) 358-2289 • @ParkVisaliaSeniorLiving

November Highlights

AL Resident Spotlight

Rita S.

Rita Shields is a delightful 91-year-old woman who was born and raised in Los Angeles, California. Her warm and sociable nature is evident in her love for people and her ability to light up with a smile, especially when hearing a good story. Rita's family has always been her greatest source of pride. She was married to the love of her life, Harold, who has since passed away. Together, they raised two children, creating a legacy of love and memories.

Rita's passion for literature is unwavering, and she can often be found immersed in a good book. Her love for social interaction is perfectly complemented by her enjoyment of bingo, where she can combine her fondness for games with the pleasure of being around others. Music plays a significant role in Rita's life, with a particular affinity for classical compositions, though she appreciates various genres.

Friendships are incredibly important to Rita, with Dane and Val holding special places in her heart as her best friends. Her Christian faith continues to be a cornerstone of her life, providing guidance and comfort. To keep her mind sharp and engaged, Rita enjoys solving word searches in her leisure time.

Rita has a soft spot for movies, particularly those featuring animals and romantic comedies, which align well with her kind nature and appreciation for heartwarming stories. Despite the challenges that come with aging, Rita maintains an active and engaged lifestyle, finding joy in simple pleasures and cherishing her relationships. Her kind demeanor, happy disposition, and love for life make her a beloved member of her community.

MC Resident Spotlight

David B.

David Blessing, 63 years old from Burbank, California, has led a life filled with diverse experiences and meaningful connections. His professional journey included roles in the fast food industry and at the post office, showcasing his adaptability and work ethic.

While never married, David has formed a deep and significant bond with his close friend, Sherry, who holds a special place in his heart. His ability to communicate in both English and American Sign Language demonstrates his diverse skill set and suggests connections within the deaf community.

David's competitive spirit and love for games are evident in various aspects of his life. He achieved a notable milestone by winning a bowling tournament in Tulare County, highlighting his skill and dedication to the sport. His reputation as an excellent card player further emphasizes his strategic thinking and enjoyment of friendly competition. David's passion extends to all kinds of tournaments, underscoring his love for challenges and competitive environments.

Creativity plays a significant role in David's life, particularly through his love for ceramics and pottery. This artistic pursuit allows him to express himself and likely serves as a relaxing and fulfilling hobby.

Sports and entertainment are also important aspects of David's interests. He's an avid fan of the Dallas Cowboys and admires professional golfer Tiger Woods. His enjoyment of mini-golf combines his appreciation for golf with a more accessible and fun version of the sport. David's love for action movies with beautiful scenery indicates his appreciation for visual storytelling and perhaps a sense of adventure.

A cornerstone of David's life is his beloved dog, Minnie, whom he had for over 10 years. This long-term companionship highlights David's capacity for care and commitment. In his leisure time, David enjoys watching funny YouTube videos, showcasing his sense of humor and appreciation for modern entertainment platforms.

Family holds a special place in David's heart, as he loves all of his family members dearly. This strong familial bond, combined with his close friendship with Sherry and his long-term companionship with Minnie, underscores the importance David places on relationships in his life.

Throughout his journey, David has cultivated a variety of interests and skills, from athletic pursuits like bowling to artistic endeavors like pottery. His diverse experiences, skills, and interests paint a picture of a well-rounded individual who embraces life's various offerings with enthusiasm and dedication.